Mobile Phones/ Tablets

Dear Families,

As we know, many children have smart phones.

There are settings on the main devices such as Android and IOS, to give parents greater control.

However, there are third party apps which parents can download to ensure that they have greater control of their child's device.

These are known as monitoring apps.

On the reverse, is a useful sheet for you.

Some are subscription only and there is a monthly fee, but they can give families a greater piece of mind, if their child has a device.

Kind Regards

Daniel Wood
